

Job Description:

Rebel Kitchen coffee Field Sales Executive

The Role:

We're looking for a team of Field Sales Executives to help drive distribution of Rebel Kitchen MYLK within the UK independent coffee sector with a focus on London. This will be an initial 4-week contract role starting week commencing 11th January 2021. Full training and sales tools will be provided in December 2020.

The perfect candidate will have at least 2 years B2B coffee industry sales experience and confident using a traditional barista machine. We are seeking individuals with a tenacious new business approach who are target driven and possess fantastic customer service. We are only looking for individuals who are living in London at this stage.

The Package:

Hourly wage DOE plus unlimited bonus and travel expenses paid. This is an initial 4-week contract.

Responsibilities:

- Drive distribution of Rebel Kitchen MYLK within the UK independent coffee sector.

Skills / Experience required:

- 2+ years B2B coffee sales experience
- Barista trained

The Business:

Nurture Brands is a young, sustainable food & drinks business with a vision to Nurture Positive Choices through Food, Business & Beyond. We recently announced that award-winning The Primal Pantry has joined our portfolio, alongside Rebel Kitchen, EMILY and Ape – supporting the business' mission to become the UK's fastest growing plant-based snacking and beverage business.

Does this sound like the role for you?

Email your CV and outline why you should be considered to represent Rebel Kitchen to julian@nurturebrands.com with a deadline of 21st October 2020. We will be carrying out informal zoom interviews week commencing 26th October 2020.